Mariah Carey, 49, flaunts bikini body in sparkly lavender swimsuit while poolside in St. Barts

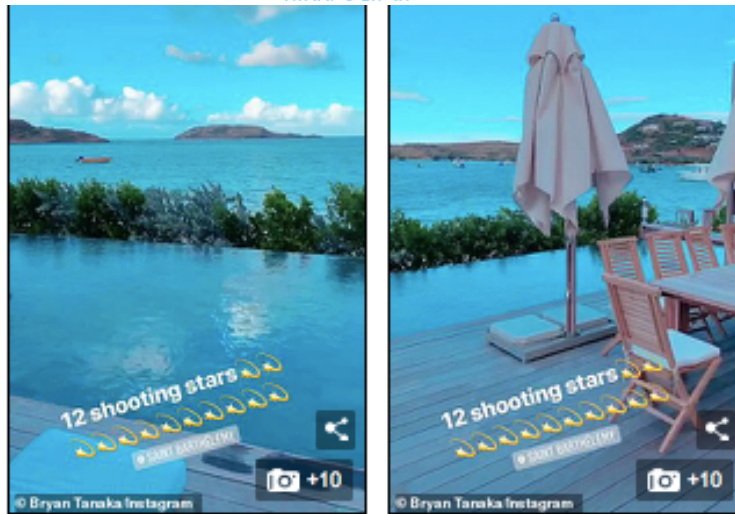

Mariah Carey flaunted her bikini body on Friday while getting wet and wild poolside at her luxury resort in the Saint Barthélemy capital of Gustavia.

The 49-year-old R&B diva kept her glittery rings and bracelets on for her evening dip and showcased her curvaceous 5ft8in figure in a sparkly lavender triangle two-piece.

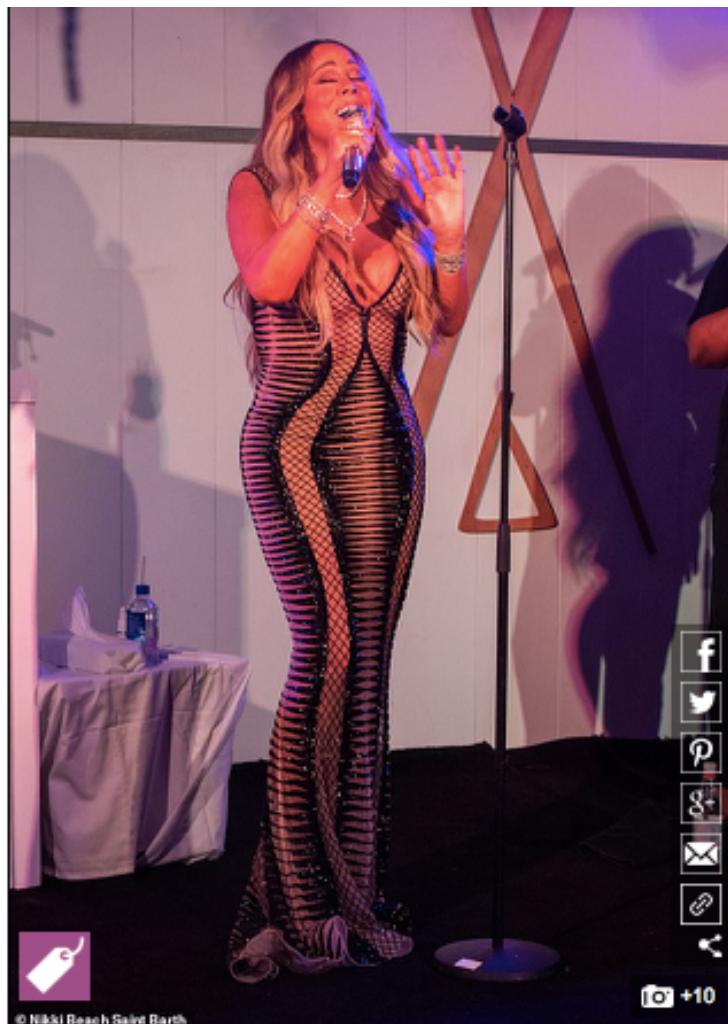

The five-time Grammy winner has been vacationing on the French-speaking Caribbean island ever since her New Year's Eve gig at St. Barth hotspot Nikki Beach.
